Augustus Longstreet Hull Award Nomination Form

If additional space is needed to complete sections B,C or D of this form, use the reverse side of this sheet or supplement this form with pages you provide!

This Award is the highest recognition that the Athens Historical Society (AHS) bestows. It is the desire of the AHS to publicly recognize individuals whose exemplary service(s) to the AHS or to the recordation and preservation of Athens area history is so extraordinary as to merit specific recognition through the high honor of this award.

Candidates for the Award should meet one or more of the following accomplishments which are extraordinary in duration, breadth and/or importance:

- Conducted research significant to the history of Athens or the region around Athens
- Contributed to the promotion and advancement of the AHS through his/her service to the organization
- Set a specific and extraordinary example in preserving or recording local history
- Sheer quantity and quality of services and/or works performed by the candidate.
