3:00 p.m., Athens-Clarke County
Library Auditorium

Ron Evans of the Athens-Clarke Heritage Foundation will present a slide program based on the Foundation's reprint of a photogravure of notable Athens homes and businesses, taken at the turn of the century (20th, not 21st) by photographer Albin Hajos. How many of these old houses will you be able to recognize? You would be surprised at the stories these walls could tell!

Hint: This house is on Cobb Street, gracing the Historic Cobbham community as a glorious "painted lady!"

Several years ago, under the presidency of Ron Bogue, many AHS members contributed old photographs of Athens to be copied and added to a collection called "Vanishing Athens." The copies are housed in the Hargrett Library at the University of Georgia Main Library and made available to researchers.

As we approach the bicentennial of Athens and Clarke County, let's expand that collection by going through those boxes of old pictures in the top of the hall closet and making them available to posterity.

Please write information about each photo, such as the names of the people in the photo, location, approximate time period (if known), and current owner with address and phone number on a separate sheet. Photos will be copied and returned to the owner unharmed.

Contact Mary Ellen Brooks at the Hargrett Library, phone (706) 542-7123, for more information or details.

Don't forget to renew your AHS membership!
